TO: Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Attention: Mr. S. J. Papich

FROM: Deputy Director for Plans

SUBJECT: Boris LEVITSKY aka Borys LEVITSKIY aka LEVITSKIY aka LEVITSKIY
ESPIONAGE - R

1. Reference is made to your Bureau's File Number 65-63740 on Subject and your Bureau's File Number 105-131270 on Ivan John JAREMKO.
2. A sensitive source of this Agency learned in November 1966 that Subject, now living in Munich, Germany, plans to visit the United States (date not given). The source also reported that it was uncertain if Subject would contact John JAREMKO or vice versa, in Chicago.
3. JAREMKO stated during a visit to New York on 10 November 1966 that he was interested in organizing a society to establish cultural contacts with the Ukraine SSR. He explained that the aims of the society were to import literature and other cultural items from the Ukraine, organize tourist trips to the Ukraine, and to invite various Soviet Ukrainian musical ensembles, etc., to the United States. In the course of discussing the society, JAREMKO mentioned Subject's plan to visit the United States and opined that the society could not include such people (as Subject), but added that the society should not avoid contact with such people.
4. JAREMKO, in promoting the society, wanted to exploit Georgiy Georgiyevich SHEVEL, Deputy Supreme Soviet of the Ukraine SSR and a Member of the USSR Delegation to the 21st Session of the United Nations General Assembly (UNGA). JAREMKO said that he met SHEVEL at a party given at the Ukrainian Mission to the UN on 18 October 1966. JAREMKO's opinion was that SHEVEL, and not Dmitriy Zakharovich BELOKOLOS, Minister of Foreign Affairs, USSR, and Head of the USSR Delegation to UNGA 21st Session, was the highest ranking official at the USSR Mission. JAREMKO further opined that SHEVEL's contact in the United States is Yuriy Nikolayevich KOCHUBEY, First Secretary, Ukrainian Mission to the UN, whose status was superior to that of Viktor Petrovich CHERNYAVSKIY, Second Secretary, Ukrainian Mission to the UN.

5. JAREMCO demonstrated interest in a woman identified as fun POSYCHANYUK (phonetic) who appears to have arrived in the United States recently from the Ukraine and who lives in the vicinity of New York. (COMMENT: This Agency has no data on this name.)

6. JAREMCO planned to leave New York for Buffalo, New York, on 13 November 1966 with an unidentified Polish woman. The Polish woman was to depart the United States for Poland on 14 November 1966.

7. COMMENT: Subject in recent years has gained the reputation of being a Kremlinologist of some standing, and reportedly has had articles published in such publications as Problems of Communism (published by USIA), the Polish-language monthly, Kultura, and various German-language journals. Subject's most recent publication is a Polish-language book, entitled, Polityka Narodowosciowa Z.S.S.R. w Dobie Chruszczowa (National Policy of the USSR in the Khrushchev Era), published by the Instytut Literacki, Paris, 1966, with a postscript written by Vasvolod BOLUBNYCHYI aka Vasvolod BOLUBNYCHYI, and translated from the German by Mieczyslaw ZARECKI. This book is Volume CXXIX in a series known as Architektura Rewolucji.

8. It is requested that this information not be disseminated outside your Bureau.
